

USE YOUR

AS WELL AS YOUR HEAD

Check out the 'I♥Arts & Humanities'
Blackboard site for Welcome Week events.
For Faculty of Arts and Humanities students and staff.

EVERYBODY IS INVITED.

IS YOUR HEART IN IT?

#ilovehum #UEA  @UEAilovehum

FACULTY OF ARTS AND HUMANITIES

I♥ARTS & HUMANITIES

EVENTS BY DAY

ALL EVENTS ARE OPTIONAL, BUT HIGHLY RECOMMENDED!

TUESDAY 26 SEPTEMBER

Multimedia Experience –

Drop-in, 11.00 – 14.00

Media Lab, Music Building

ALL STUDENTS AND STAFF

Explore this exciting digital trail around the UEA Media Suite. Showcasing diverse work from film to audio and digital artefact by HUM students and UEA partners, including: the East Anglian Film Archive, the British Archive for Contemporary Writing, the Literary Festival and the Music Centre. Drop in for all or part of the trail.

Welcome Home

13.00-14.00, The Square

ALL STUDENTS AND STAFF

An interactive piece of street theatre inspired by Warsan Shire's poem Home, performed by our Drama students to welcome you to the Faculty of Arts & Humanities. Meet new people, play with chalk and be surprised in the square.

WEDNESDAY 27 SEPTEMBER

+ HUMANITIES DAY +

Borders & Boundaries

Interdisciplinary Panel Sessions

Congregation Hall 01.19

ALL STUDENTS AND STAFF

Hear lecturers debate from a range of humanities viewpoints. Join in, ask questions and find your own perspective.

– Humanities at the Margins

(10.00-11.00)

– Policing Boundaries

(12.00-13.00)

– Configuring the Nation

(14.00-15.00)

– Representation of Space

and Place (16.00-17.00)

Languages Fair – Drop-in,

11.00 – 13.00, Julian Study

Centre 3.02

ALL PPL STUDENTS AND FIRST

YEAR UNDERGRADUATE

HUM STUDENTS may have one free language module per semester. This means that you can take an extra non-credit language module for no extra cost. Come and find out more!

Dean's Prize Award Ceremony

14.00 – 15.00, Council Chamber,

Registry Building

ALL STUDENTS AND STAFF

A celebration of HUM talent. See the winning entries from 2016/17's undergraduate second year competition (theme: 'Exploring Utopia'). Discover what makes HUM Special.

2017/18 competition will be launched.

Film Screening: A Century of

Girlhood 18.00 – 20.00, The

Enterprise Centre 0.16

ALL STUDENTS AND STAFF

Discover the history of girlhood in Norfolk with this film screening. Made with East Anglian Film Archive footage from the 'International Day of the Girl Norwich' Festival. Followed by Q&A.

THURSDAY 28 SEPTEMBER

The Arts and Humanities

Opportunities Fair – Drop-in,

11.00 – 14.00 Council Chamber,

Registry Building ALL STUDENTS

This event is all about trying something new, finding out about opportunities and making the most of your time at university. Informally meet a range of creative and voluntary organisations and student societies looking for HUM students like you.

Community Choir Open

Rehearsal 13.00 – 14.00,

The Square

ALL STUDENTS AND STAFF

Open rehearsal of the UEA community choir. If you want to try singing in a choir, want to sing in a more informal way or are keen to sing for fun and explore your voice, please come along! No choir experience necessary.

FRIDAY 29 SEPTEMBER

Multimedia Experience –

Drop-in, 11.00 – 14.00

Media Lab, Music Building

ALL STUDENTS AND STAFF

Another chance to explore the digital trail around the UEA Media Suite. Showcasing a range of diverse work from film to audio and digital artefact. Drop in for all or part of the trail.

FACULTY OF ARTS AND HUMANITIES

I ♥ ARTS & HUMANITIES

If I ♥ Arts & Humanities events are at the same time as School or module teaching events, module/School events should take priority.

#ilovehum #UEA  @UEAilovehum