10 January 2017

Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Information request (ref: FOI_16-253)

We have now considered your request of 20 December 2016 for information relating to the 2016 cohort admission to the A100 medicine course.

Our response is on page 2 of this letter, together with a copy of your request.

We hope this information will meet your requirements, however if you are not satisfied you have the right of appeal. If you wish to appeal, please set out in writing your reasons for appealing and send to the above address. You must appeal within 60 calendar days of the date of this letter. Any appeal received after that date will not be considered nor acknowledged. This policy has been reviewed and approved by the Information Commissioner's Office.

You also have a subsequent right of appeal to the Information Commissioner's Office. Further information is available on their website:

Response to Freedom of Information Act 2000 request (FOI_16-253)

Please answer the following questions only if you admitted a cohort of students in 2016 for admission to a A100 medicine course.

1. How many applications did you receive in total?

1,437 applications were received

2. How many offers did you make to students? How many of these were privately educated?

398 offers were made, 76 of these were to applicants who were privately educated.

3. How many of the people who you made offers to either already had or passed A-levels with at least 3 passes at grade A or above? How many of these were privately educated?

204 applicants already had or passed A-levels with at least 3 passes at Grade A or above, 34 of these were privately educated.

4. How many of the people who applied to you but then were NOT offered a place either already had or passed A-levels with at least 3 passes at grade A or above? How many of these were privately educated?

218 applicants already had or passed A-levels with at least 3 passes at Grade A or above, 38 of these were privately educated.
