23 January 2017

Dear ██████████

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Information request (ref: FOI_16-254)

We have now considered your request of 20 December 2016 for information relating to the top ten undergraduate degree programmes.

We note that we have not, as of the date of this letter, received a response to our email of 21 December 2016 requesting clarification of your request; namely, whether you wished to have the requested information presented by calendar year or by academic year. Absent a response from yourself, we have presented the information in the manner in which it held, that is by academic year.

We hope this information will meet your requirements, however if you are not satisfied you have the right of appeal. If you wish to appeal, please set out in writing your reasons for appealing and send to the above address. You must appeal within 60 calendar days of the date of this letter. Any appeal received after that date will not be considered nor acknowledged. This policy has been reviewed and approved by the Information Commissioner's Office.

You also have a subsequent right of appeal to the Information Commissioner's Office. Further information is available on their website:

https://ico.org.uk/Global/contact_us, or by telephone on 0303 123 1113.

Please note that any material over which UEA has copyright is released on the understanding that you will comply with all relevant copyright rules regarding reproduction and/or transmission of the information provided.

Please quote our reference given at the head of this letter in all correspondence.

Yours sincerely

Dave Palmer
