[REDACTED]
29 April 2016

Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Information request (ref: FOI_16-106)

Thank you for your request of 27 April 2016 for the following information:

'1) In each of the academic years from 2010-2011 to 2015-16 (up to the date on which you begin processing this request), how many disciplinary incidents have you recorded involving the inappropriate possession, supply or use of each of the following substances:

- Ritalin
- Modafinil
- Adderall
- Other "smart drugs" or nootropics, including Noopept, Dexedrine, cholines or racetams?

2) Details of each of these incidents, including, if available, the quantity of the substance and the age(s) and gender(s) of the student(s) involved, and any disciplinary action taken'

Our response is as follows:

There have been no disciplinary incidents within the specified time frame involving the use of 'smart drugs'. Therefore, in line with your rights under section 1(1)(a) of the Act to be informed whether information is held, we confirm that the University does not hold any relevant information.

We hope our response will meet your requirements, however if you are not satisfied you have the right of appeal. If you wish to appeal, please set out in writing your reasons for appealing and send to the above address. You must appeal within 60 calendar days of the date of this letter. Any appeal received after that date will not be considered nor acknowledged. This policy has been reviewed and approved by the Information Commissioner's Office.

You also have a subsequent right of appeal to the Information Commissioner's Office. Further information is available on their website:
