15 November 2016

Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Information request (ref: FOI_16-210)

We have now considered your request of 20 October 2016 for the following information:

“...a full list of all undergraduate courses offered by your university, along with the number of students currently enrolled on each course. This includes subjects being studied as joint honours.

If possible, I do not want these figures to include students who have dropped out or changed subjects, but the number of students enrolled on courses at the time the information is collated.”

Our response is, as requested, within the attached Excel spreadsheet entitled FOI_16-210 Appendix A.

Please note that in order to obscure low values that could, in combination with other publicly available data, identify individuals, we have replaced any value between ‘1’ and ‘4’ with the notation ‘<5’.

In accordance with the Code of Practice (datasets)¹, issued under s.45 of the Act, we have also provided this dataset in a re-usable format, namely as a Comma Separated Value (CSV) file entitled FOI_16-210 Appendix B.

This dataset can be used and re-used without charge, under the terms of the Open Government Licence. This licence contains important conditions, which you are advised to read. <http://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/doc/open-government-licence/version/3/>

If you wish to re-use this dataset in any product or application you must include the following Attribution Statement:

We hope this information will meet your requirements, however if you are not satisfied you have the right of appeal. If you wish to appeal, please set out in writing your reasons for appealing and send to the above address. You must appeal within 60 calendar days of the date of this letter. Any appeal received after that date will not be considered nor acknowledged. This policy has been reviewed and approved by the Information Commissioner's Office.

You also have a subsequent right of appeal to the Information Commissioner's Office. Further information is available on their website:
