Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Information request (ref: FOI_17-248)

We have now considered your request of 10 October 2017 for the following information:

Would it be possible to find out how many students in total are doing a masters degree in economics and how many come from the country with the greatest population doing this course, please specify the country to , if you can give any more details on the ratio of boys to girls from this community as well race that would be awesome? Also, who is in charge of this masters programme I would like to enquire and ask them more them more questions.

Our response is as follows:

There are 109 students currently studying for an MSc with Economics in the course title.

The nationality with the highest number of students is Chinese with 61 students in total.

Of the above community, 35 students are female and 26 are male and all have been classified with the ethnicity category of BME (Black, Minority, Ethnic).

The course directors for the MSc courses are Professor Peter Moffatt and Dr James Watson.
