Response to Freedom of Information Act 2000 request (FOI_17-036)

1) Could you please send me a copy of your institution's criteria used to determine a lecturer's suitability to become a Professor of Learning and Teaching?

The rules and procedures relating to the terms and confirmation of appointment, determination of salary, advancement and promotion of members of academic staff is available on the web at:

https://www.uea.ac.uk/documents/2506781/2685870/Rules+and+procedures+relating+to+the+terms+and+confirmation+of+appointment,+%20determination+of+salary,+%20advancement+and+promotion+of+members+of+academic+staff+\(Green+Book\))

Please see Appendix C for assessment standards.

2) How many known lecturers in numbers on your database have progressed to the role of a Professor based solely on their learning and teaching excellence based on your institution's criteria?

Thirteen current professors have progressed to the role of Professor based on learning and teaching excellence since 01/08/2006.

3) How many known Professors in numbers do you have who have been promoted to the Professorial level based solely on their research excellence based on your institution's criteria?

Eighty-five current professors have progressed to the role of Professor based on research excellence since 01/08/2006

4) *Can I please have a list of all the Professors in your institution?
(This information can be anonymous if necessary- but if possible, if known, their gender and length of teaching in that institution can be included).*

Our response is provided within the accompanying excel file Appendix A_FOI_17-036. The data provided is the total length of teaching at the University, not just length of teaching as a Professor.
