11 June 2018

Dear

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Information request (ref: FOI_18-121)

We have now considered your request of 29 May 2018 for the following information in relation to the 2017 application cycle:

“...would it be possible to have the following information:

- Number of people who applied
- Number of places that were available on the course
- Number of candidates that were interviewed
- Number of offers that were made

Please could this be provided for EACH of the courses listed below:

- Medicine
- Medicine with a foundation year”

As we have not received a response to our request for clarification of 29 May, we are proceeding on the basis of our initial understanding of your request; namely, that you wish to receive data relating to the 2017 application cycle.

Therefore, our response is within the table below:

Questions	Courses
	Medicine	Medicine with Foundation Year
No. of applicants	1429	386
No. of places available	167	24
No. of candidates interviewed	744	129
No. of offers made	434	60

We hope this information will meet your requirements, however if you are not satisfied you have the right of appeal. If you wish to appeal, please set out in writing your reasons for appealing and send to the above address. You must appeal within 60 calendar days of the date of this letter. Any appeal received after that date will not be considered nor acknowledged. This policy has been reviewed and approved by the Information Commissioner's Office.

You also have a subsequent right of appeal to the Information Commissioner's Office. Further information is available on their website:

https://ico.org.uk/Global/contact_us, or by telephone on 0303 123 1113.

Please note that any material over which UEA has copyright is released on the understanding that you will comply with all relevant copyright rules regarding reproduction and/or transmission of the information provided.

Please quote our reference given at the head of this letter in all correspondence.

Yours sincerely
