Dear

We have now considered your request of 19 November 2018 for information relating to the number of PGCE applicants who failed to gain a place at the University.

We did not receive a reply to our email of 28 November, in which we asked which year(s) we should include in our response. In the absence of this clarification from you, we have provided the information from September 2007, which is the earliest year in which this information is recorded.

Our response is on page 2 of this letter, together with a copy of your request.

We hope this information will meet your requirements, however if you are not satisfied you have the right of appeal. If you wish to appeal, please set out in writing your reasons for appealing and send to the above address. You must appeal within 40 working days of the date of this letter. Any appeal received after that date will not be considered nor acknowledged. This policy has been reviewed and approved by the Information Commissioner's Office.

You also have a subsequent right of appeal to the Information Commissioner's Office. Further information is available on their website:
