Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Information request (ref: FOI_18-003)

Thank you for your request for information received on 02 January 2018.

Your request asks in part for information which is your personal data. That element of your request will be handled as a subject access request under the Data Protection Act and my colleague Ellen Paterson has contacted you separately on that matter. We will address under FOIA your request for the average score of the candidates selected for interview for the post ALC730.

We have now considered your request and can confirm that the average score of those selected for interview for the post ALC730 was 130.3, out of a total possible score of 180.

We hope this information will meet your requirements, however if you are not satisfied you have the right of appeal. If you wish to appeal, please set out in writing your reasons for appealing and send to the above address. You must appeal within 60 calendar days of the date of this letter. Any appeal received after that date will not be considered nor acknowledged. This policy has been reviewed and approved by the Information Commissioner's Office.

You also have a subsequent right of appeal to the Information Commissioner's Office. Further information is available on their website:

https://ico.org.uk/Global/contact\_us, or by telephone on 0303 123 1113.

Please note that any material over which UEA has copyright is released on the understanding that you will comply with all relevant copyright rules regarding reproduction and/or transmission of the information provided.

Please quote our reference given at the head of this letter in all correspondence.

Yours sincerely
