[REDACTED]

25 June 2018

Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Information request (ref: FOI_18-123)

We have now considered your request of 30 May 2018 for the following information:

'I wish to request information about Prof. Anne-Marie Minihane, Professor of Nutrigenomics, Norwich Medical School. I request an account of payments and monies received, including, but not limited to, grants, travel awards, stipends, and any other payments for research, advice, leadership (including as a chair, trustee, scientific advisor, editor, or similar role), or consultancy, since 2013'

Our response is as follows:

In the period from January 2013 to May 2018, Professor Minihane had live grants of £3,180,000.00.

On this occasion it is not possible to provide all the requested information. In line with your rights under section 1(1)(a) of the Act to be informed whether information is held, we confirm that the University does not hold information on the amount received by Professor Minihane since 2013 in the form of travel awards, stipends, and any other payments for research, advice, leadership (including as a chair, trustee, scientific advisor, editor, or similar role), or consultancy.

This information is not held nor collected by the University as this income is received by Professor Minihane in a personal capacity, not as an employee of UEA and therefore is of no concern or interest to the University.

We hope this information will meet your requirements, however if you are not satisfied you have the right of appeal. If you wish to appeal, please set out in writing your reasons for appealing and send to the above address. You must appeal within 60 calendar days of the date of this letter. Any appeal received after that date will not be considered nor acknowledged. This policy has been reviewed and approved by the Information Commissioner's Office.

You also have a subsequent right of appeal to the Information Commissioner's Office. Further information is available on their website:
