[REDACTED]

31 July 2018

Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Information request (ref: FOI_18-147)

We have now considered your request of 03 July 2018 for the following information:

'1. Have the Charity Commission and/or the Office for Students enquired into events on grounds that they have been potentially in conflict with the University's Prevent duty? If yes:

- a) How many inquiries have there been in the past two academic years?*
- b) What were the events? Please provide details.*

2. Which student societies have faced inquiries into their events, and on what grounds have these inquiries been made?'

Our response is as follows:

Question 1 – No, neither the Charity Commission nor the Office for Students have enquired into events at UEA on the grounds that they could potentially be in conflict with UEA's Prevent duty.

Question 2 – None. No student societies at UEA have faced inquiries into their events.

We hope this information will meet your requirements, however if you are not satisfied you have the right of appeal. If you wish to appeal, please set out in writing your reasons for appealing and send to the above address. You must appeal within 60 calendar days of the date of this letter. Any appeal received after that date will not be considered nor acknowledged. This policy has been reviewed and approved by the Information Commissioner's Office.

You also have a subsequent right of appeal to the Information Commissioner's Office. Further information is available on their website:
