

17 July 2019

Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information Act 2000– Information request (ref: FOI_19-172)

We have now considered your request of 24 June 2019 and clarification dated 09 July 2019 for the following information:

‘Please could you let me know the % of applicants on your medicine course A100 who were made an offer to study medicine who did not have chemistry A level for the past 5 years’

Clarified on 09 July 2019 to request the percentage of applicants to the medicine A100 course taking A levels who did not have chemistry as one of their A levels

Our response is as follows:

Entry Year	Percentage of applicants
2018-19	1%
2017-18	1%
2016-17	0%
2015-16	0%
2014-15	0%

We hope this information will meet your requirements, however if you are not satisfied you have the right of appeal. If you wish to appeal, please set out in writing your reasons for appealing and send to the above address. You must appeal within 40 working days of the date of this letter. In line with section 5.3 of the UK Government’s Freedom of Information Act Code of Practice, we are not obliged to accept internal reviews after this date.

You also have a subsequent right of appeal to the Information Commissioner’s Office. Further information is available on their website:

https://ico.org.uk/Global/contact_us, or by telephone on 0303 123 1113.

Please note that any material over which UEA has copyright is released on the understanding that you will comply with all relevant copyright rules regarding reproduction and/or transmission of the information provided.

Please quote our reference given at the head of this letter in all correspondence.

Yours sincerely

Kirsty McDonald
Information Compliance Assistant
University of East Anglia