

18 February 2019

Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information Act 2000– Information request (ref: FOI_19-033)

We have now considered your request of 29 January 2019, and your clarification email of 15 February 2019 stating you would like the data provided for UK domiciled Undergraduate students, for the following information:

‘The number of students who have a UK Government loan, for the year 2018, in a tabulated spreadsheet format.

The number of students who do not have a UK Government loan, for the year 2018, in a tabulated spreadsheet format.’

Our response is within the table below. We have not provided the data in tabulated spreadsheet format due to the limited amount of data requested.

Undergraduate UK domiciled students
No. of students with a loan	No. of students without a loan
9,804	419

We hope this information will meet your requirements, however if you are not satisfied you have the right of appeal. If you wish to appeal, please set out in writing your reasons for appealing and send to the above address. You must appeal within 40 working days of the date of this letter. In line with section 5.3 of the UK Government’s Freedom of Information Act Code of Practice, we are not obliged to accept internal reviews after this date.

You also have a subsequent right of appeal to the Information Commissioner’s Office. Further information is available on their website:
