

[REDACTED]

28 February 2019

Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information Act 2000– Information request (ref: FOI_19-045)

We have now considered your request of 06 February 2019 for information relating to incidents of UEA students cheating in examinations.

Our response is in the accompanying document, FOI_19-045 Appendix A.

On this occasion it is not possible to provide all the requested information. In line with your rights under section 1(1)(a) of the Act to be informed whether information is held, we confirm that the University does not hold information relating to the number of students who will undertake reassessment exams for the academic year 2018/19. The University does not yet know the exact number of students who will be required to do so, therefore cannot supply this figure.

We hope this information will meet your requirements, however if you are not satisfied you have the right of appeal. If you wish to appeal, please set out in writing your reasons for appealing and send to the above address. You must appeal within 40 working days of the date of this letter. In line with section 5.3 of the UK Government's Freedom of Information Act Code of Practice, we are not obliged to accept internal reviews after this date.

You also have a subsequent right of appeal to the Information Commissioner's Office. Further information is available on their website:

https://ico.org.uk/Global/contact_us, or by telephone on 0303 123 1113.

Please note that any material over which UEA has copyright is released on the understanding that you will comply with all relevant copyright rules regarding reproduction and/or transmission of the information provided.

Please quote our reference given at the head of this letter in all correspondence.

Yours sincerely

Kirsty McDonald
Information Compliance Assistant
University of East Anglia