Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Information request (ref: FOI_19-085)

We have now considered your request of 19 March 2019 for the following information:

'What percentage of your medical students have studied Sociology a level/as level?'

Clarified on 19 March 2019:

'I am interested in current students on the MBBS programme.'

Our response is as follows:

0.5% of the current student population on the MBBS course had studied Sociology at either AS or A Level.

We hope this information will meet your requirements, however if you are not satisfied you have the right of appeal. If you wish to appeal, please set out in writing your reasons for appealing and send to the above address. You must appeal within 40 working days of the date of this letter. In line with section 5.3 of the UK Government's Freedom of Information Act Code of Practice, we are not obliged to accept internal reviews after this date.

You also have a subsequent right of appeal to the Information Commissioner's Office. Further information is available on their website:
