Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Information request (ref: FOI_19-371)

We have now considered your request of 18 November 2019 and clarification email of 19 November 2019 for the following information:

'Please provide the total number of students who were subject to the Fitness to Study policy in the last full academic year (or the most recent year where figures are available - please indicate the year).'

Clarified on 19 November 2019:

'Can I have the [...] figures for arts and humanities?'

Our response is as follows:

For the last full academic year (2018-19) a total of 40 students in the Arts and Humanities faculty were subject to the Fitness to Study policy.

We hope this information will meet your requirements, however if you are not satisfied you have the right of appeal. If you wish to appeal, please set out in writing your reasons for appealing and send to the above address. You must appeal within 40 working days of the date of this letter. In line with section 5.3 of the UK Government's Freedom of Information Act Code of Practice, we are not obliged to accept internal reviews after this date.

You also have a subsequent right of appeal to the Information Commissioner's Office. Further information is available on their website: https://ico.org.uk/Global/contact_us, or by telephone on 0303 123 1113.

Please note that any material over which UEA has copyright is released on the understanding that you will comply with all relevant copyright rules regarding reproduction and/or transmission of the information provided.

Please quote our reference given at the head of this letter in all correspondence.

Yours sincerely
