

██████████

09 December 2019

Dear ██████████

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Information request (ref: FOI_19-364)

We have now considered your request of 14 November 2019 for information relating to the number of students with Dyslexia admitted to the University and whether they had previously attended a private or state secondary school.

Our response is on page 2 of this letter, together with a copy of your request.

We hope this information will meet your requirements, however if you are not satisfied you have the right of appeal. If you wish to appeal, please set out in writing your reasons for appealing and send to the above address. You must appeal within 40 working days of the date of this letter. In line with section 5.3 of the UK Government's Freedom of Information Act Code of Practice, we are not obliged to accept internal reviews after this date.

You also have a subsequent right of appeal to the Information Commissioner's Office. Further information is available on their website:

https://ico.org.uk/Global/contact_us, or by telephone on 0303 123 1113.

Please note that any material over which UEA has copyright is released on the understanding that you will comply with all relevant copyright rules regarding reproduction and/or transmission of the information provided.

Please quote our reference given at the head of this letter in all correspondence.

Yours sincerely

Kirsty McDonald
Information Compliance Assistant
University of East Anglia

Response to Freedom of Information Act 2000 request (FOI_19-364)

Could you please provide me with the following information, under FOI laws.

- How many students admitted in the 2018-2019 academic year received extra time or other special measures due to being dyslexic?*

213.

- How many of these dyslexic students came from the private school sector?*

30.

- How many of these dyslexic students came from state secondary schools?*

48.

With regard to our answers to your second and third questions, please note that we do not hold complete information for all students. Students may also have joined us from international schools, Higher Education Institutions, or other establishments that do not fall into the requested categories.