

FOI STATISTICS RE BLACK UNDERGRADUATES IN LAW, 2014-2018

	Total numbers of UK domiciled students commencing undergraduate degrees in law	State Schools (inc FE colleges), and Comprehensive Schools (inc FE colleges)	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	Average (mean) for years 2014-2018
1	Total number of students who are UK domiciled, and commenced undergraduate degrees in law.		84	145	142	108	117	119
2	Total number of Black students who are UK domiciled, and commenced undergraduate degrees in law.		7	10	11	9	12	10
3	The percentage of UK domiciled students, who commenced undergraduate study in law, who are Black.		8%	7%	8%	8%	10%	8%
4	Total number of Black students who are UK domiciled, and commenced undergraduate degrees in law who:	Undertook their A Levels, Scottish Highers (or equivalent) AND GCSEs (or equivalent) at state schools , including FE colleges, within the UK.	[Exempted pursuant to s.40(2), FOIA]	9	8	[Exempted pursuant to s.40(2), FOIA]	10	[Exempted pursuant to s.40(2), FOIA]
5	Total number of Black students who are UK domiciled, and commenced undergraduate degrees in law who:	Undertook their A Levels, Scottish Highers (or equivalent) AND GCSEs (or equivalent) at comprehensive schools , including FE colleges, within the UK.	[Exempted pursuant to s.40(2), FOIA]	8	6	[Exempted pursuant to s.40(2), FOIA]	8	[Exempted pursuant to s.40(2), FOIA]

NB: All information is solely concerned with those commencing their first undergraduate degree on a single honours law programme only.