

Format of information

Where your request covers information that is already published by the University, we will provide you with directions on how to locate the appropriate information in its usual published format.

Otherwise, we can provide you with (please tick your preference):

- the opportunity to view the information by appointment with the Information Policy and Compliance Manager
- the information in 'permanent' form (e.g. photocopies of the relevant information)
- the information in summary/ 'digest' form (available only if the information is in a format that can be summarised coherently and in reasonable time)
- some other form (please specify).....

Notes

(i) Though there is no limit to the scope of the information you may request, please note that the University may have the right to refuse vexatious requests pursuant to Section 14 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000), to excise information that relates to other third parties (under the terms of Principles 1, 6 and 7 of the Data Protection Act 1998) and to not disclose information that is covered by relevant exemptions allowed by the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

(ii) If your request is refused or is only answered partially, a full explanation for our decision will be provided. You will be entitled to appeal to the University and contact details will be provided. You will also be provided with details of how to make an external appeal to the Office of the Information Commissioner.

(iii) In cases where the University holds only some of the information requested, we will respond as fully as we can. Should we need to redirect an enquiry to some other public body you will be informed of this immediately.

(iv) The University may choose to charge a fee to cover the costs of our search and direct costs (eg. copying); and, until the fee is received, the information you have requested will not be released to you.
