Dear [REDACTED]

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 – INFORMATION REQUEST
(Our ref: FOI_14-189)

We have now considered your request of 22 September 2014 for information relating to on-campus deaths of students for each year from 1999 to the present.

Pursuant to your rights under section 1(1)(a) of Freedom of Information Act 2000 to be informed whether information is held, this letter is to formally advise you that we do not hold the requested information. We do not keep a record of student deaths on campus and therefore have no recorded information relevant to your request.

You have the right of appeal against this decision. If you wish to appeal, please set out in writing your reasons for appealing and send to the above address. You must appeal our decision within 60 calendar days of the date of this letter. Any appeal received after that date will not be considered nor acknowledged. This policy has been reviewed and approved by the Information Commissioner's Office.

You also have a subsequent right of appeal to the Information Commissioner whose contact details<sup>1</sup> can be found on their website.

Please quote our reference given at the head of this letter in all correspondence.

Yours sincerely

David Palmer
Information Policy and Compliance Manager
University of East Anglia
