

Public Lectures

Public lectures are arranged by the University. The programme of lectures is published and announcements are made in the press.

THE ARTHUR BATCHELOR LECTURE

The following rules govern the Arthur Batchelor Fund:

- 1 The benefaction given to the University in 1963 by Miss D.M. Batchelor shall constitute a trust fund called the Arthur Batchelor Fund and such investments as may from time to time be made from this benefaction shall be investments of the trust fund.
- 2 The income from the Arthur Batchelor Fund shall be used:
 - (1) to provide lectures on a subject concerning music or the visual arts and, if appropriate, for the subsequent publication of the lectures.
 - (2) with the approval of the Senate on the recommendation of the Vice-Chancellor, to provide Arthur Batchelor Scholarships, Prizes and Bursaries in areas of study of Art History and World Art Studies and Music Performance.
- 3 The lecturer shall be appointed by a body consisting of the Vice-Chancellor and two other members appointed for each occasion by the Senate.
- 4 The stipend and expenses of the lecturer shall be determined by the Vice-Chancellor having regard to the provisions of rule 2(1).
- 5 These rules shall be subject to alteration by the Senate provided that the name of Arthur Batchelor be always connected with the foundation and that income arising there from be appropriated to some academic object of a similar character.

THOMAS PAINE LECTURE

The Thomas Paine Society has instituted a biennial lecture which is governed by the following rules:

- 1 The benefaction given to the University in 1970 by Mr Jesse Collins, a member of the Thomas Paine Society, shall constitute a trust fund called the Thomas Paine Lecture Fund and such investments as may from time to time be made from this benefaction shall be investments of the trust fund.
- 2 The income from the Thomas Paine Lecture Fund shall be used to provide one lecture every two years on some aspect of Thomas Paine's life, times or thought and for the subsequent publication of the lectures.

3 The lecturer shall be appointed by a body consisting of the Vice-Chancellor, a representative of the School of History and/or the School of Art, Media and American Studies and/or the School of Politics, Philosophy, Language and Communication Studies and a representative of the Thomas Paine Society.

4 The stipend and expenses of the lecturer and the decision whether or not to publish the lecture shall be determined by the body appointing the lecturer.

5 These rules shall be subject to alteration by the Senate, on the recommendation of the body responsible for appointing the lecturer, provided that the name of Thomas Paine be always connected with the trust fund and that income arising there-from be appropriated to some academic object of similar character.
