1 Introduction

Learning and Teaching Committee at its meeting of 14th May confirmed the conclusion of the B10 working group that broadly, the indicators were currently being met and, as required by the expectation, we can demonstrate that UEA takes ultimate responsibility for academic standards and the quality of learning opportunities irrespective of where these are delivered or who provides them. Arrangements for delivering learning opportunities with organisations other than the degree-awarding body are implemented securely and managed effectively.

Consideration of the code showed that there is scope for enhancing our practice and this had been identified as clear actions which will be reported back to LTC as set out in the mapping document

2 Progress

The attached action plan details what progress has taken place since the May report. Partner institutions are working on their individual action plans and there is a separate report to LTC on progress of all partners on engaging with the Quality Code.

The report highlights where action has been completed or gives deadlines for work in progress. The main constraint at present is the lack of an on-line system to support integration of records held at a local level. The options for such a system are currently being considered.

Chapter B10: Managing higher education provision with others
 Chapter Champion: Sally Walker

Chapter Expectation:

Degree-awarding bodies take ultimate responsibility for academic standards and the quality of learning opportunities irrespective of where these are delivered or who provides them. Arrangements for delivering learning opportunities with organisations other than the degree-awarding body are implemented securely and managed effectively.

Indicator 3
Policies and procedures ensure that there are adequate safeguards against financial impropriety or conflicts of interest that might compromise academic standards or the quality of learning opportunities. Consideration of the business case is conducted separately from approval of the academic proposal.
Partnerships	For partnerships business case is separated from course/institution approval.	No further action required

Study Abroad	Students pay £1350 for study abroad but full year students are subsidised by HEFCE/UEA. . Semester students are not subsidised.	No action required
Indicator 4
Degree-awarding bodies that engage with other authorised awarding bodies to provide a programme of study leading to a joint academic award satisfy themselves that they have the legal capacity to do so.
Partnerships	UEA has currently only one such arrangement with University of Essex for University Campus Suffolk. Partnerships Handbook	Further clarification has been provided on joint and dual awards. http://www.uea.ac.uk/partnerships/international/International+Handbook	HOP	Completed Jan 2014

The risks of each arrangement to deliver learning opportunities with others are assessed at the outset and reviewed subsequently on a periodic basis. Appropriate and proportionate safeguards to manage the risks of the various arrangements are determined and put in place.

Indicator 6
Appropriate and proportionate due diligence procedures are determined for each proposed arrangement for delivering learning opportunities with an organisation other than the degree-awarding body. They are conducted periodically to check the capacity of the other organisation to continue to fulfil its designated role in the arrangement.
Partnerships	For Partnerships due diligence is part of the approval process, periodically checked at Institutional Reapproval/Revalidation. Agreements can be checked/reviewed at any time if concerns are raised.

Need to articulate the process for review of placements and consider inclusion in annual course update. 'Professional' Schools often have to comply with regulations of the PSRBs who accredit the programmes so usually well covered. 4. Indicator 7
There is a written and legally binding agreement, or other document, setting out the rights and obligations of the parties, which is regularly monitored and reviewed. It is signed by the authorised representatives of the degree-awarding body (or higher education provider without degree-awarding powers arranging provision by a third party) and by the delivery organisation, support provider or partner(s) before the relevant activity commences.

Erasmus: EU bi-lateral agreements are generally School-specific and approved by School at annual signings.	N/A
Indicator 8
Degree-awarding bodies take responsibility for ensuring that they retain proper control of the academic standards of awards where learning opportunities are delivered with others. No serial arrangements are undertaken without the express written permission of the degree-awarding body which retains oversight of what is being done in its name.
Partnerships	Processes as set out in the Partnerships Handbook demonstrate control of academic standards Serial arrangements not allowed unless agreed in writing and formally approved by UEA. (although there are currently no such arrangements) Evidence - partnership agreements	No further action required
Placements	This is for collaborative arrangements. Learning opportunities, where relevant to placements are covered in 6 above, however note action 1	Need to review placement template to specify that placements cannot be at any other institution than that named in the agreement (i.e. a placement at a partner of that institution is not acceptable).
PGR	Reviewed by B10-PGR Implementation Group	No immediate actions required but B10-PGR Implementation Group will keep under review
Study Abroad	Currently, non-transferring marks are sent directly to Hubs. Transferring marks are prepared by Study Abroad Office and signed off by School Abroad Coordinator(s).	Need clarification on marks from other institutions counting towards UEA degrees. Needs to be clear in Undergraduate Regulations. Being considered by North America Strategy Group. Will be considered more widely by Study Abroad Group once established.	HOI	Progress report to Spring 2015 LTC

Degree-awarding bodies retain responsibility for ensuring that students admitted to a programme who wish to complete it under their awarding authority can do so in the event that a delivery organisation or support provider or partner withdraws from an arrangement or that the degree-awarding body decides to terminate an arrangement.
Partnerships	Partnership agreements have termination clauses which ensure that students are supported through their agreed course of study following termination of an arrangement. The university is aware of its obligations and would put remedial action in place should a partner not fulfil their obligations as set out in the agreement.	None required
Placements	If a placement provider withdraws, alternative arrangements are considered on an individual basis.	Action: See Action Indicator 2
PGR	Reviewed by B10-PGR Implementation Group, reporting to Postgraduate Research Executive with any required actions	Contingency plans for students with supervision at London Academy of Diplomacy following UEA London closure Supervision of LAD PGR students transferred to UEA supervision.	HPGR	No further action required
Study Abroad	Termination clause provides sufficient time to find a new placement. There are currently enough options to allow fulfilment of University pastoral responsibility to students enrolled on YA. Slots are decided upon between 18-24 months in advance and a partner would never renege on such an arrangement prior to the last-agreed cohorts' participation. However, should this occur, the SA office would very likely be able to arrange a reallocation to another partner university.	None required
Indicator 10
All higher education providers maintain records (by type and category) of all arrangements for delivering learning opportunities with others that are subject to a formal agreement.
Partnerships	Agreement database covers all partnership agreements	There is a central record of where placement agreements and reviewed annually	are kept.

Placements	The CoP 9.2 states: 1.1. The School of Study will ensure that details relating to any new placement/work-based learning arrangement, including full contact details of the organisation concerned and details (where known) of where the student will be residing whilst in placement, are shared with the relevant LTS HUB. Indicator 11
Degree-awarding bodies are responsible for the academic standards of all credit and qualifications granted in their name. This responsibility is never delegated. Therefore, degree-awarding bodies ensure that the standards of any of their awards involving learning opportunities delivered by others are equivalent to the standards set for other awards that they confer at the same level. They are also consistent with UK national requirements.

Indicator 12

When making arrangements to deliver a programme with others, degree-awarding bodies fulfil the requirements of any professional, statutory and regulatory body (PSRB) that has approved or recognised the programme or award, in relation to aspects of its delivery and any associated formal agreements. The status of the programme or award in respect of PSRB recognition is made clear to prospective students.

Indicator 15
Degree-awarding bodies ensure that delivery organisations involved in the assessment of students understand and follow the assessment requirements approved by the degree-awarding body for the components or programmes being assessed in order to maintain its academic standards. In the case of joint, dual/double and multiple awards or for study abroad and student exchanges, degree-awarding bodies agree with their partners on the division of assessment responsibilities and the assessment regulations and requirements which apply.

Indicator 19
When degree-awarding bodies make arrangements for the delivery of learning opportunities with others, they ensure that they retain authority for awarding certificates and issuing detailed records of study in relation to student achievement. The certificate and/or record of academic achievement states the principal language of instruction and/or assessment where this is not English. Subject to any overriding statutory or other legal provision in any relevant jurisdiction, the certificate and/or the record of achievement records the name and location of any other higher education provider involved in the delivery of the programme of study. Where information relating to the language of study or to the name and location of the delivery organisation or partner is recorded on the record of achievement only, the certificate refers to the existence of this formal record.
Partnerships	Appendix 2 of institutional agreements All degree certificates produced by UEA (apart from the joint awards for UCS which are produced by University of Essex). These certificates all show the location of study. There are no partners where delivery is not in English Detailed records of study are produced by partners as agreed in the partnership agreement
