Dear ██████████

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Information request (ref: FOI_15-171)

We have now considered your request of 07 September 2015 for the following information:

1. 'For the combined total of the last three academic years (12/13) (13/14) and (14/15) how many cases have been reported to the university authorities of incidents when female students have claimed to have been the victim of a sexual assault from a male student?'
2. How many of these sexual assaults were alleged to have been rapes?
3. Over the same time period please state what, if any, university disciplinary sanctions, were imposed on male students in connection with carrying out these alleged sexual assaults on female students?'

Our response is as follows:

1. Ten.
2. Six.
3. No University sanctions were imposed as the alleged offenders ceased to be students at the University subsequent to the receipt of the reports.

We hope this information meets your requirements, however you have the right of appeal against this response. If you wish to appeal, please set out in writing your reasons for appealing and send to the above address. You must appeal within 60 calendar days of the date of this letter. Any appeal received after that date will not be considered nor acknowledged. This policy has been reviewed and approved by the Information Commissioner's Office.
