[REDACTED]

22 January 2016

Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Information request (ref: FOI_15-271)

We have now considered your request of 22 December 2015 as clarified on 04, 08 and 21 January 2016 for information about students and staffing within the Midwifery programme at UEA for the academic year 2014-2015. In line with your wishes, our response is within the attached Excel file entitled 'FOI_15-271 Appendix A.xlsx'.

It is not possible, however, to provide all the requested information. In line with your rights under section 1(1)(a) of the Act to be informed whether information is held, we confirm that the University does not have any recorded information indicating the number of staff who met the NMC guidance of spending 20% of teaching hours supporting student learning in clinical practice. Further detail is provided within Appendix A.

Please note that any material over which UEA has copyright is released on the understanding that you will comply with all relevant copyright rules regarding reproduction and/or transmission of the information provided.

You have the right of appeal against this response. If you wish to appeal, please set out in writing your reasons for appealing and send to the above address. You must appeal within 60 calendar days of the date of this letter. Any appeal received after that date will not be considered nor acknowledged. This policy has been reviewed and approved by the Information Commissioner's Office.

You also have a subsequent right of appeal to the Information Commissioner's Office. Further information is available on their website:

https://ico.org.uk/Global/contact_us, or by telephone on 0303 123 1113.

Please quote our reference given at the head of this letter in all correspondence.

Yours sincerely
