Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Information request (ref: FOI_15-243)

We have now considered your request of 15 November 2015 regarding the gender distribution of the academic staff and professors in our University. Our response is on page 2 of this letter, together with a copy of your request, and we hope this will meet your requirements.

Please note that any material over which UEA has copyright is released on the understanding that you will comply with all relevant copyright rules regarding reproduction and/or transmission of the information provided.

You have the right of appeal against this response. If you wish to appeal, please set out in writing your reasons for appealing and send to the above address. You must appeal within 60 calendar days of the date of this letter. Any appeal received after that date will not be considered nor acknowledged. This policy has been reviewed and approved by the Information Commissioner's Office.

You also have a subsequent right of appeal to the Information Commissioner's Office. Further information is available on their website:

Response to Freedom of Information Act 2000 request (FOI_15-243)

Please could you let me know the gender spread of the academic staff and the number of professors in your university (Male and Female)?

The requested information is presented in the table below¹:

Staff (by headcount) ²	Gender		Total Staff
	Female	Male
Non-Professorial staff	593	585	1178
Professorial staff	58	158	216
Total	651	743	1394

¹ Data is as of date of request

² The figures presented include staff within both 'Academic' and 'Research' categories as used by our Human Resources Division. This includes staff on contracts and a career path primarily engaged in mature research and teaching, and those in the early career stages of research. By including both groups we present staff at every level (lecturer, senior lecturer, reader and professor) and stage of academic activity.
