09 February 2015

Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Information request (ref: FOI_15-025)

We have now considered your request of 03 February 2015 for the following information:

- 1) Does your organisation have a 'Known Protesters' file, or any document which may outline similar details relating to recognised protesters at your organisation?
- 2) If so, as of February 2nd 2015, how many people are currently on the file?
- 3) If so, what details about the protesters does the file record?
- 4) Who compiles this file?
- 5) Who makes use of this file and in what circumstances?

On this occasion it is not possible to provide any of the requested information as the University does not hold a 'known protesters' file, or similar document.

Therefore, in line with your rights under section 1(1)(a) of the Act to be informed whether information is held, we confirm that the University does not hold any information relevant to your request.

You have the right of appeal against this response. If you wish to appeal, please set out in writing your reasons for appealing and send to the above address. You must appeal within 60 calendar days of the date of this letter. Any appeal received after that date will not be considered nor acknowledged. This policy has been reviewed and approved by the Information Commissioner's Office.

You also have a subsequent right of appeal to the Information Commissioner's Office. Further information is available on their website:
